

Hakkaisan Sake Pairing Dinner

JUNE 18TH at 6:30pm

OTOTO

event details

World renowned sake expert, Mr. Timothy Sullivan (Global Brand Ambassador of Hakkaisan Brewery), will host a special sake and food pairing event at OTOTO on June 18th, 2019 at 6:30pm - $135 per person

Five course extravaganza curated by our very own Master Chef and Den Corner owner, Toshi Kizaki.

menu

Awa 'Sparkling' sake with Fresh Oysters & Copper River Crudo

Junmai Ginjo with Chef's Assorted Selection of Sushi

Tokubetsu Junmai with Miso Marinated Chilean Seabass Kama

Yukimoro Snow Aged Sake with Colorado Lamb Loin served with Basil Sauce

Kijoushu Dessert Sake with House Made Mochi Cake

We are unable to accommodate any dietary restrictions or allergies. No gluten free menu or substitutions available. Please do inform your party when booking for your group

As the drink that is most familiar to the Japanese, sake has long played a crucial role in the lives of Japanese people, dating back to the 700's.

Hakkaisan produces sake with an emphasis on export just as much as import. By doing this, Hakkaisan successfully delivers premium sake built from traditional Japanese methodologies with consideration of international palates.

SPECIAL GUESTS

MS. SHOKO BABA
International Marketing
Member

VICE PRESIDENT NAGUMO

NAKAJIMA-SAN
US Brand Manager

MR. TIMOTHY SULLIVAN
Global Brand Ambassador

MEET THE HOST

TIMOTHY SULLIVAN, also known as...

Founder of the first sake blog in the United States, UrbanSake.com, "Sake Samurai" – given title from the Japanese Sake Brewer's Association, recipient of professional sake certifications from The Sake Education Council, The Sake School of America, the Sake Service Institute and the Wine & Spirits Education Trust. He also teaches the next generation of sake professionals for the Sake School of America, the WSET Sake certification programs and private sake seminars. If you're looking to sharpen your sake knowledge, this is your perfect opportunity!

